

Sunday, September 6, 2009
Brother Satyananda

Consciously renew your spiritual aspiration after life disruptions. Infuse your heart, mind, daily environment with spiritual energy.

There is a progress of humanity in this Dwapara Yuga. Helping people to help themselves. Dwapara charity is international. Free knowledge on the internet – being made available to all. Building world citizens. This is a new form of service to humankind – open-source learning.

Charity in Dwapara empowers.

Altruism – helping people to help themselves. Organizations that help people help themselves include: laptop.org, seeingeeye.org, kiva.org

World Family – Master thought this way – a universal humanitarian. Universal Altruism. A World without Boundaries.

Use your intelligence to develop a new concept of education and intelligence.

Vedic Scriptures – on Service

1. Self-fulfilling action – personal desire – what you get out of it. Good action.
2. Altruistic – serving others selflessly.
3. Devotional Service – Seva. Performing noble actions for the good of all and offering them all to God.

The wise should act with devotional unattachment. Motivated by the joy for working for God alone.

Seva – Sikh word from Sanskrit that means:

To serve, to attend upon, to worship, to adore, to pay reverence to.

Highest form is an act of devotion to God.... Action that is considered worship.

Sikhi-wiki.org